

MENTORSHIP PROGRAM – TEST (M1)

- 1) The commercial policy of East India Company is significantly changed after 1813. Identify the reasons and differentiate the policy before and after 1813. (150 words) 12 marks
- 2) The zamindari system introduced by the lord Cornwallis was basically determined by political, financial, administrative expediency. Discuss (150 words) 12 marks
- 3) Identify the critical differences between the permanent settlement, Ryotwari, Mahalwari systems. (150 words) 12 marks
- 4) Significance of late 1920s, 30s in Indian national movement lie in development of socialistic thought. Explain the circumstances and consequences of this shift. (150 words) 15 marks
- 5) Discuss the growth of communalism in 1930 and 40s. Assess the efforts of national movement to combat it. (150 words) 15 marks
- 6) The communalism emerged as a result of the emergence of new, modern politics based on the people and on popular participation and mobilization. The other causes can be traced to Backwardness, divide and rule policy of the British. Discuss. (150 words) 12 marks
- 7) The reform movement in early 19th century was majorly focused on the emancipation of the women and reform of Hindu religion, but, later 19th century it covered wider agenda. Elaborate. (150 words) 12 marks
- 8) Discuss the achievements of ancient and Medieval India in the following sector? (150 words) 12 marks
  - (a) Mathematics
  - (b) Astronomy
  - (c) Medicine

MENTORSHIP PROGRAM – TEST (M1)

- 9) Sufi movement in India has enriched the culture and values with its secular outlook. (150 words) 12 marks
- 10) Elaborate on the following . (150 words) 12 marks
(a) Buddhist literature
(b) Sangam literature
(c) Bhakti Movement
- 11) India and china can enhance the synergies through connectivity and Trust. Critically analyse this statement in the light of recent initiatives by China and India and their impact. (150 words) 12 marks
- 12) Shared understanding, protection of unique identities are essential part of our Philosophy - Unity in Diversity. Analyse the problem of Nagas in the light of above statement. (150 words) 12 marks