

LA EXCELLENCE - IAS MENTORSHIP PROGRAM TEST – 3

- 1) There are some quite resemblances between French class structure (before revolution) and Indian caste system. Some differences too. But how the societies reacted/reacting to the same is very different. Do you think so. Analyse (150 words) 10 marks
- 2) Caste system is not just division of Labour, it is division of laborers. Comment (150 words) 10 marks
- 3) Bring out the relationship between the shrinking himalayan glaciers and the climate change in Indian sub continent. (150 words) 10 marks
- 4) Explain the formation of tropical cyclones and their impact on Indian economy. Discuss why they are more seen in Orissa, Andhra Pradesh. (150 words) 10 marks
- 5) Man is born free and yet every where he is in chains – comment. With respect to French Revolution. Add a note on the impact of liberal thinking on French Revolution. (150 words) 10 marks
- 6) The capitalism gave the European empire necessary solidarity, permanence and at the same it hastened their downfall. (150 words) 10 marks
- 7) How did the treaty of Vienna altered the course of European history for the next 100 years. (150 words) 10 marks
- 8) Impact of globalization on Middle class is the most significant. It raised their aspirations and created a new wave of hope. At the same time Globalisation also created the discontent among the masses. Elaborate (150 words) 10 marks
- 9) India has faced two consequent droughts. The reason lies in the changing oceanographic phenomenal. Explain. Suggest the measures to fight the drought and steps taken by the Government. (150 words) 10 marks
- 10) Smart cities will end up creating islands of growth in the ocean of dis functional cities. Critically analyse the smart cities mission. (150 words) 10 marks
- 11) Women empowerment shall start from home and extend to the nation. Do you agree? Women reservations can not be a complete solution for their empowerment. (150 words) 10 marks
- 12) Dalit capitalism, reservations in India have replaced the phenomenon of caste by birth with caste by merit. Solutions to end the caste in India shall be much deeper. (150 words) 10 marks
- 13) There are parallels between Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Jyotibha Phule, Syed Ahmed Khan. They all believed in education as a greatest social equalizer. Analyse their thought and contribution to the reform of education. (150 words) 10 marks

LA EXCELLENCE - IAS MENTORSHIP PROGRAM TEST – 3

- 14) Do you think Indian political system should have been organized bottom up rather than top down. Analyses the views of Jaya Prakash Narayan. B R Ambedkar , Gandhiji and others.
(150 words) 10 marks
- 15) Discuss the economic critique of imperialism by early nationalists. (150 words) 10 marks
- 16) Indian foreign policy took a new turn after India China war. It finally led to a treaty of friendship and cooperation with Russia. Do you agree? (150 words) 10 marks
- 17) Dance forms in North India are significantly different from South India. Added to this, there is a continuity between dance forms south India and Eastern India. Analyse.
(150 words) 10 marks
- 18) There are reasons in Medieval India for the development of Sufi movement and Bhakti movement simultaneously. It has enriched Indian culture and Tradition. Identify the valuable inputs added by these movements to Indian Tradition. (150 words) 10 marks
- 19) The most important fishing grounds in the world are located in few specific areas. Give reasons. (150 words) 10 marks
- 20) Many of the rich states in India have very poor sex ratio. On the other hand poor states have a better sex ratio. How can this be explained. (150 words) 10 marks